

FREEDOM'S CALL

message study guide

By faith in Jesus, we can live a life of FREEDOM. This week we see how freedom comes with a call to serve. This can help us keep from becoming self-absorbed and slipping back into slavery. We live in freedom as we live by the Spirit. As followers of Jesus, we need to seek Jesus daily so that we do not try and seek our own freedom by keeping the law or by gratifying sinful desires. We learn that grace is not a supplement to help us to try and live a good life. Grace is God's unmerited work in our lives intended to renew us in the likeness of Christ.

Read Galatians 5:1, 13-25

week five:

Freedom's Call... to Serve

Questions from the Text:

1. According to this passage what are the two natures at work in every Christian? (v.16-18)

2. In the Old Testament, drifting away from God was most often referred to as idolatry. What would Paul call it? What does the Christian truly want?

3. In verses 16 & 18 different things are set in opposition to the Spirit. How is the motivation the same for both things set in opposition to the Spirit?

Applying the text:

1. What does it mean to “crucify the flesh” in verses 24-25? How is this different from what Paul said in Gal. 2:20? What are some common mistakes that we can make when we think about what it means to crucify the flesh?
2. Verses 5:1 & 13a contain the theme for the entire series. What do these words mean to you? What are some ways we can re-enslave ourselves?
3. From verses 13-15, answer the questions: Why does a Christian obey God? Does motivation matter? How do our lives look different when they are lived out of faith working through love rather than fear?
4. Compare verses 1 and 13. What are the two ways that we can misuse the gospel and lose our freedom?
5. How are we free from the law and in what ways are we not?
